About Shanghai Forum

Shanghai Forum, launched in 2005, is known as one of the most famous international forums held in Shanghai. Co-hosted by Fudan University and Korea Foundation for Advanced Studies, undertaken by Fudan Development Institute (FDDI), the Forum is a non-governmental and non-profit academic organization, which holds an annual symposium each May in Shanghai. Shanghai Forum 2018 will be held from May 26 to May 28, 2018 in Shanghai. The theme is “Asia’s Responsibilities in A World of Change”.

Shanghai Forum takes its mission to “Concentrate on Asia, Focus on Hot Issues, Congregate Elites, Promote Interactions, Enhance Cooperation and Seek Consensus” seriously. It endeavors to build an interactive platform for multi-sided communication amongst academic, political, commercial, and press circles through which significant problems both in Asia and the world will be discussed comprehensively and profoundly, so as to seek consensus on Global Governance, Social Governance, Public Security, Environmental Governance, Culture & Civilization and Scientific & Technological Innovation. Shanghai Forum opens application to the world. Many well-known think tanks, universities, enterprises, media and other organizations apply to host roundtables/sub-forums every year.

Over the years, numerous political dignitaries, distinguished scholars, and business leaders have been invited to share their thoughts and wisdom at Shanghai Forum, including Han Zheng (Member of the Standing Committee of the Political Bureau of the CPC Central Committee, Vice Premier of the State Council), Chen Zhili (former Vice Chairman of the NPC of China), Tang Jiaxuan (former Minister of Foreign Affairs of China), Han Seung-soo (former Prime Minister of Republic of Korea), Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono (former President of Indonesia), Enrico Letta (former Prime Minister of Italy), Abdullah Gül (11th President of the Republic of Turkey), Temir Sariiev (former Prime Minister of Kyrgyzstan), Dagfinn Høybråten (Secretary General of the Nordic Council of Ministers), Ben. S. Bernanke (former Chairman of the Board of Governors of the United States Federal Reserve System), Robert Alexander Mundell (known as the "father" of the Euro, 1999 Nobel Laureate in Economics), Robert Shiller (2013 Nobel Prize Laureate in Economics), Paul Volcker (former Chairman of the Federal Reserve), Zhu Min (former Deputy Managing Director of the International Monetary Fund), Robert Zoellick (former President of the World Bank Group), Chey Tae-won (Chairman of SK Holdings), and Wu Jinglian (leading economist of China).

Shanghai Forum invites leaders of the world’s top companies and institutions to form an international advisory group. The advisory members include Robert Zoellick (former President of the World Bank Group), Robert Shiller (2013 Nobel Prize Laureate in Economics), Paul Volcker (former Chairman of the Federal Reserve), Park In-kook (former Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs, Republic of Korea; President, Korea Foundation for Advanced Studies) and Zhu Min (former Deputy Managing Director of the International Monetary Fund). Up until now, the Forum has forged close strategic co-operation with Chinese Academy of Sciences, Xinhua News Agency, Guangming Daily, Sina.com, Yale University, University of California, London School of Economics and Political Science, Goethe University Frankfurt, The University of Tokyo, Seoul National University, the Nordic Council of Ministers, Peterson Institute for International Economics, SK Group of Korea, Qualcomm Incorporated, etc.
