• Theme Interpretation •

Relations among major powers in the Asia-Pacific and beyond will witness new developments during the Trump administration. This Roundtable will focus on two sets of trilateral relationship: China-US-Russia, and China-Japan-India.

China-US-Russia Trilateral Relations:

Donald Trump may reshape US policy towards Russia and China, which will have tremendous impacts not only on China-US-Russia trilateral relations but also on Asian and international order. This Roundtable will focus on the following topics:

1. Donald Trump's China policy and China-US relations;
2. Donald Trump's Russia policy and US-Russia relations;
3. Possible Changes between and among China, US, and Russian relations and their impacts on international and regional order

China-Japan-India Trilateral Relations:

The Current China-Japan-India triangle is characterized by warm Japan-India relations, cool China-India relations, and deadlocked China-Japan relations. Donald Trump's foreign policy may also have significant impacts on China-Japan-Indian relations. This Roundtable will discuss the following topics:

1. Donald Trump's policy toward Japan and India: what to be expected?
2. A better China-Japan relations: is it possible?
3. Will China-India relations go down?
4. Will the Momentum in Japan-India relations sustain? ■■■
